

MARYLAND · HISTORICAL · SOCIETY

Calling all History Day students!
Join us for Open Archives Saturdays
at the Maryland Historical Society!

You are invited to participate in a workshop on historical research methods. Research your History Day topic with original primary sources from the collections at MdHS.

Sessions are from 10 am – 1 pm.

October 27

Register by Oct. 20

November 10

Register by November 3

To register, visit our website and complete the form. You may also call 410.685.3750 x 324 or email darmenti@mdhs.org to confirm that your topic can be researched at MdHS.

Registration is on a first come, first serve basis.
Individual sessions are also available upon request.

$15 per student. Parents and teachers are encouraged to accompany students and will receive free admission to the museum. Free on-site parking is also available.

Research your History Day project at MdHS! Learn more about the many examples of triumph and tragedy that happened in your own backyard!

Colonial and Revolutionary Era

- Native Americans Efforts to Preserve Land and Culture
- Protestant Revolution of 1689: Puritan and Catholic Conflict
- Anthony Stewart and Maryland's Tea Party Protest

Early National and Antebellum Era

- Frederick Douglas and the Slavery Abolition Movement in Maryland
- Free Blacks in Maryland Fight for Their Rights
- Harriet Tubman and The Underground Railroad
- The American Party: Anti-Immigrant Politics
- War of 1812

Civil War and Reconstruction

- United States Colored Troops: Fighting for Freedom
- Emancipation in Maryland
- Divided Loyalties: Maryland Regiments in the Civil War

Gilded Age and Progressive Era

- The B&O Railroad Strike of 1877
- The Women's Suffrage Movement in Maryland
- The Great Baltimore Fire of 1904
- The Oyster Wars

World War I/The Great Depression to World War II

- New Deal Programs and the Expansion of Workers' Rights/Education
- Workers' Rights and Diversity in Baltimore Shipyards.
- Women Workers in World War II Defense Industries
- Rehabilitation of World War 1 Veterans

Civil Rights Movement/Vietnam War to the Modern Era

- Thurgood Marshall and the School Desegregation Efforts in Maryland's Public Schools
- NAACP: The Campaign to Integrate Ford's Theatre in Baltimore
- Activism and protest during the Vietnam War