

Oral History Permission to Publish Form

Quotation from oral history interview transcripts in the possession of the Maryland Historical Society is allowed without explicit permission if it falls within standards established for fair use of copyright materials. Scholars are welcome to utilize short excerpts without obtaining permission as long as credit is given to the interviewee and the Maryland Historical Society.

Please use the following citation form:

Interviewee's last name, First name, Interview by interviewer's first and last name, Interview format, Location, month, day, year, Call number, Specific project collection title (if applicable), Special Collections, Maryland Historical Society Library, Baltimore.

Subsequent note reference: Interviewee's last name, interview, MdHS.

Example:

Mitchell Jr., Clarence M., Interview by Charles Wagandt, Tape recording, Baltimore, MD., February 12, 1977, OH 8209, Mckeldin-Jackson Project, Special Collections, Maryland Historical Society Library, Baltimore.

Mitchell Jr., interview, MdHS.

Permission to publish must be obtained from the Maryland Historical Society, however, before more extensive use is made of the transcription and related materials. Duplications or reproductions may be made only by the Maryland Historical Society. Permission will generally be granted except in cases where there are restrictions placed on the interview by the donor. (Note: This form only gives permission to publish material; to order photocopies of transcripts or digital copies of audio or video recordings, an Oral History Copy Order Form needs to be completed.
