Collection Origin

Photo Baltimore '77 was a project sponsored by the Peale Museum from January 1977 into 1978. When the Peale Museum/Baltimore City Life Museums closed due to lack of funding in 1997, its collections were transferred to the Maryland Historical Society the following year.

Historical Note

In 1977, the Peale Museum, supported by the Mayor's Office of Manpower Resources, sent six photographers into Baltimore to document the life and style of the city. The photographers . Max Araujo, Debra Cleveland, R. Thomas Gregory, David Lavine, Curtis Martin, and Susan Tobin . each brought their own artistic vision to the more than 16,000 images that were captured over the course of the project. An exhibit featuring about 150 of the photographs was held at the Peale Museum from April 23 through September 3, 1978.

Scope and Content

The Photo Baltimore '77 Collection consists of more than 16,000 black and white photographs in 14 boxes. The images consist of views of architecture, cultural events, street scenes, portraits, sporting events, religious organizations and more in Baltimore and the vicinity. Subjects include, but are not limited to: The Baltimore City Fair; Ham an American Day Parade; Chinese New Year Parade; Preakness Parade; Lithuanian Festival; Flower

Mart; Hopkins Plaza; Cross Street Market; Inner Harbor; Charles Center; Mount Vernon; Fells Point; Fort McHenry; Remington; Hampden; Highlandtown; Lexington Mall; Sikh Ashram in Park Heights; Police at work.

The Collection is broken down into seven series. The first six series are organized by photographer. Each has three subseries organized by format in rough chronological order: Photographic Prints; Negatives; and Contact Sheets. Series VII contains matted prints from all six of the photographers used in the 1978 BCLM exhibit.

The Peale Museum assigned ID numbers to the more than 150 prints with the prefix %RC+ followed by five digits beginning with 30000. Negatives and matted prints were not assigned numbers. MdHS assigned ID numbers to these, retaining the BCLM numbering system, beginning with number 40000 and continuing to 56118

The more than 16,000 negatives are in 35mm or 120mm format. Contact Sheets were created for most of the negatives. The prints, almost all 8x10, correspond to negatives in the collection.

Series I: Max Araujo

Series II: Debbra Cleveland

Series III: R. Thomas Gregory

Series IV: David Lavine

Series V: Curtis Martin

This series contains no negatives. They may be missing or may have been retained by the photographer. Contact Prints have not been numbered for this series.

Series VI: Susan Tobin

Series VII: Exhibit Prints

This series consists of matted photographs used in BCLM's 1978 exhibit for the project. Most are unidentified by photographer. Most, but not all, are duplicates of images found in Series I . VI.
