

Lester S. Levy Star Spangled Banner Collection Inventory List

*updated on August 8th 2013

* "Muller" is a reference to the book "Star-Spangled Banner" which is available behind the desk and in the main reading room.

Folder 1 – Anacreontic Song, printed in London by Longman & Broderick (in red portfolio)

Folder 2 - Anacreontic Song, printed in London by Longman & Broderick

Folder 3 – To Anacreon in Heaven, printed by W. Wybrow

Folder 4 – To Anacreon in Heaven, printed for H. Andrews

Folder 5 – The Anacreontic Song, printed and sold in London at A. Blands

Folder 6 – The Star Spangled Banner, composed and published by J. Hewitt, New York, 1819

Folder 7- A celebrated patriotic song, The Star Spangled, printed and sold at Carr's Baltimore

Folder 8 – Star Spangled Banner, published by A. Bacon & co., Philadelphia, sold in Baltimore

Folder 9 – New Edition Star-Spangled Banner, published and sold by T. Carr, Baltimore

Folder 10 – Star Spangled Banner, Published by A. Bacon & Co., Philadelphia

Folder 11 – The Star Spangled Banner, published by Geib & Co., New York

Folder 12 – The Star Spangled Banner, published by Geib & Co., New York (slightly larger)

Folder 13 – When Death's Gloomy Angel was Bending his Bow. Written for the first anniversary of the Washington Benevolent Society of Pennsylvania. Published and sold at G. Willig's, Philadelphia

Folder 14 – Washington Guards. Written by John Wells. Published and sold at G. Willig's, Philadelphia. Verso: Fort McHenry or, the Star Spangled Banner as sung by Hardinge.

Folder 15 – Adams and Liberty. Printed and sold by Gilfert, New York, ca. 1814

Folder 16 – Washington's Favourite the Brave La Fayette, written by a gentleman of this city. Published by John Cole, Baltimore, 1824.

Folder 17 – The Battle of the Wabash: A Patriotic Song, published by G.E. Blake, Philadelphia. Fort McHenry, or, the Star Spangled Banner. Sung with great applause by Mr. Hardings, at the Theatre Baltimore.

Folder 18 – Two Letters. (1)Lester S. Levy to Hester Rich (Librarian at MdHS), 1981 accompanied by memorandum of Star Spangled Banner sheet music (photocopies).(2) Lester. S. Levy to Romaine Somerville (MdHS), 1980

Folder 19 – Photocopies of Carr's editions

Folder 20 – Star Spangled Banner, published by Carr in 1814 *currently on display

Folder 21 – Photocopies and facsimiles of the Star Spangled Banner and the Anacreontic Song